

Watershed Coordinator

Guinevere Nelson comes to the Willow Creek Reclamation Committee to be part of positive change within the San Juan Mountains that she grew up in. Her background includes work with the NRCS/Center Conservation District, the Colorado Natural Heritage Program, the Colorado Division of Wildlife and the Natural Areas program within the City of Fort Collins she earned a biology degree from Western State College of Colorado and is excited to have a hand in this restoration project. Her interests include all things botany, backpacking and fly-fishing.